

Entrepreneurship Development: Theory and Practice in Agriculture

Editors

Dipak De

Basavaprabhu Jirli

A farmer does not become an entrepreneur only by adopting a new agricultural technology but he becomes an entrepreneur only when he comes to be an operator of a farm business" (De, 1986)

The book is divided in to eight sections namely

- 1. Entrepreneurial Notions,
- 2. Managerial Aspects of Enterprise Development,
- 3. Legal Issues in Enterprise Development,
- 4. Environmental Issues in Enterprise Development,
- 5. Information and Communication Technologies (ICTs) for Enterprise Development,
- 6. Intellectual Property Rights (IPR) and Enterprise Development,
- 7. Prospective Areas of Enterprise Promotion and
- 8. Success Stories of Enterprise Development.

Under these sections different aspects are contributed by learned authors. We hope that a publication of such magnitude will act as reference material for students and researchers on entrepreneurship development in agriculture in particular and Human Resource Development in general.
