FOR STUDENT'S

Dear Student.

Upon receiving an eligibility letter for admission from BHU, you must complete any and all necessary formalities in your country, as per your country's rule for students studying abroad and procure a Student Visa.

If you are a PhD student, you must obtain a Research Visa from the Indian Embassy in your country. PhD students who are OCI, MUST obtain approval for Ph.D. research studies through a Letter of Permission from the Ministry of Home Affairs, Government of India.

You should enroll preferably within one month of admission, but must enroll within the period of eligibility, usually within the following two terms after receiving admission.

Once you have your visa/approval letter, you are required to report IN PERSON, not by email or letter, to the International Centre of Banaras Hindu University in Varanasi to complete the remaining paper work. For hassle-free registration process, please carry the following documents IN ORIGINAL (and make several photocopies of each):

- 1. Eligibility letter for Admission, issued by Banaras Hindu University
- 2. Proof of Age / PASSPORT with copies / Passport size photographs
- 3. Marksheets/Certificates/Transcripts of Academic records; Migration/Transfer Certificate, as issued by the institution last attended
- A certificate issued by the Institution/College, last attended regarding Proficiency in English (For Ph.D.: TOEFEL with minimum 70 score or IELTS (minimum 6 bands).
- 5. Valid Appropriate Student Visa or Research Visa stamped into Passport, OR Letter of Permission for OCIs. Please note that the Visa endorsement should be specifically for Study and acceptable to Banaras Hindu University.
- 6. For Nepal & Bhutan nationals only: Citizenship Certificate (in absence of Visa), duly countersigned by the Consular Wing of the Mission of India in the respective country (AND in case of PhD Admission, a NO OBJECTION LETTER from the Mission.
- 7. For Iran nationals: NOC from the Islamic Republic of Iran in India (in addition to the Visa issued by the Indian Embassy abroad)

After your documents are verified by the International Centre, you are required to undergo a medical HIV test. Please note that currently if you are found HIV-positive, the Government of India usually will not allow admission.

After the HIV Test is completed, the International Centre will issue you a Certificate of Clearance which you will then carry to your concerned Faculty/ Department for verification of your original academic records, entries and signature made in the Application form etc. Once the department completes all necessary formalities, they will issue an Admit Card for provisional admission.

Please come to the International Centre with the Admit Card and Bank Draft towards Additional charges to complete necessary formalities and obtain instructions for paying your fees.

You must deposit the Tuition and University Fees for the Academic Year specific to your course and Faculty, within three days of issue of the Admit Card, failing which admission shall be cancelled. The fee must be deposited during the fixed window of admission for your Course/Faculty; late admissions cannot be accepted. Upon payment, you will receive an original Fee Receipt.

Report to the concerned Dean/Head/Coordinator/Principal, alongwith the fee receipts immediately for entering your name in the records of the Course/Faculty. Obtain Identity Card, complete it and get it signed by your Dean/Head/Coordinator/ Principal. Day Scholars must obtain a signature from the City Delegacy. You must carry the Identity Card with you at all times as a student.

Next, you must have to enroll yourself with the University for which please go online to the website of BHU, complete the Registration and Enrolment Form. Uploading a photo .jpg and all necessary information, print it, obtain a signature from your concerned Dean/Principal/Head/Coordinator/Principal and submit to the Office of the Controller of Examinations. They will issue an Enrolment Number to you within 3-5 days after checking your records. Enter that number into your Student's Identity Card.

Further, you may avail the library, medical computer WiFi and hostel facilities (subject to its availability) etc. by applying at the respective Units of the University.

As an international student at BHU, you MUST register with the Varanasi FRO (Foreigners Registration Office) within ten days of admission

Complete Online Form C-Arrival Report of Foreigner, obtain Bonafide Student's Certificate from your Faculty/Department/ School and Warden of the Hostel (in case hosteller) and submit it to the International Centre for Online Registration.

Report to the Senior Superintendent of Police and FRO, located at Kotwali Premises, near G.P.O. Visheshwarganj, near Maidagin, Varanasi as stipulated in your Passport, along with Form C, your BHU paper work, letter of admission, Fee Receipt Identity Card and Bonafide Student's Certificate issued by the concerned faculty/department and duly countersigned by the International Centre.

By accepting admission as a student of BHU, you agree that you will:

vabide by the guidelines issued periodically by the Government of India and/or the Banaras Hindu University

✓ deposit University fee at the appropriate times annually during the entire duration of your course

✓fulfill the attendance requirements for class and for appearing at all examinations

✓ake any absence from BHU only after prior intimation and permission from the concerned Head/Dean (and Regional Officer, for ICCR Scholars)

✓obtain extension for the period of your Student/Research Visa as needed, and notify any changes to the concerned Head/Dean/Coordinator/Principal and to the International Centre immediately

As a student of BHU, you agree that you will NOT:

Xengage or involve yourself in any political or other controversial activities;

Xjoin any activities prejudiced against the interest of your own country or against India;

Xparticipate in any activities that may embarrass relations between India as your host country & any foreign country

NOTE on Academic Integrity: Admissions are provisional and subject to verification of the original with copies of mark sheets, certificates and other documents, by the respective Dean of Faculty /Head of Department/ Coordinator/Principal, through the respective Committees involved with admission. Genuineness of the document(s) must be satisfied for obtaining admission.

Provisional admission may be cancelled at any time during the entire period of the concerned course of study, if at any stage it is detected that the applicant provided fake or forged certificates or documents, indulged in any act of misconduct/ indiscipline/ moral turpitude, OR concealed any other relevant information at the time of seeking provisional admission.

Such applicant is liable for prosecution by the Government of India and will be debarred from admission to any courses at BHU in the future.
