Varanasi 221005 (U.P.)

Under the propitious banner of “Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav”, an initiative of the Government of India, to celebrate and commemorate 75 years of Indian independence, the glorious history, its culture, achievements, and the civilization. Department of Linguistics, FoA, BHU, Varanasi feels immense pleasure to organize a two day National Seminar on Teaching-Learning in Mother/Local Tongue: NEP-2020 and the 1st Alumni Meet from 30th September to 1st October, 2023. It winds up the celebration of the 50 years of the department’s establishment and commemoration of the Golden Jubilee Celebration which started with hosting the 49th All India Conference of Dravidian Linguists (AICDL) in June, 2022.

The Department of Linguistics, Faculty of Arts, BHU has completed its 50 years. Last year, we commemorated the Golden Jubilee and organized the 49th AICDL and a series of international and national Invited lectures throughout the year. The journey of our department has been immensely exciting and it is a major stakeholder of linguistic studies in the Northern part of India. The department specializes in teaching, training and research in all the fields of applied and theoretical linguistics. It’s a matter of honour to celebrate its first ever Alumni meet cum National Seminar in the religious capital of India i.e., Varanasi

In a span of fifty years, our graduates have become global citizens. We firmly believe that all of you nurture mutual pride and a sense of achievement. You are our greatest ambassadors! All of you are also important stakeholders of Linguistics and this Institute is as much yours as it is ours. We must keep reinventing the path, we are walking on and strive for the betterment of this department every day. Your association with the department and Banaras Hindu University is life-long and cannot be limited by your physical presence on the campus. This is your Alma Mater and this department will always be a part of all that life has to offer you. We welcome your constructive suggestions in all the dimensions of Department of Linguistics, BHU.

We are looking forward to meeting you through its first alumni event. This department will be continuously striving towards strengthening its alumni network by undertaking efforts to connect you through various platforms.

To make this event more fruitful, the department also proposes to organize a National Seminar along with the alumni meet. We call for research work and scholarly articles presentations. The areas to be deliberated upon at the Seminar are as follows: Phonetics, Phonology, Morphology, Syntax, Semantics, Pragmatics, Applied Linguistics; Dravidian Linguistics, Language Pathology, Linguistic Typology, Historical & Comparative Linguistics, Computational Linguistics, Sociolinguistics, NEP, Language Teaching & Testing, Endangered Languages & Lesser Known Languages, Indo-Aryan and Austro-Asiatic Studies, Writing Systems, Artificial Intelligence, Translation Studies, Cognitive & Psycholinguistics, Media & Discourse Analysis, Forensic Linguistics, Field Linguistics, Indian Grammatical Tradition, Language Acquisition, Brain and Language, Speech Synthesis, Mathematical Linguistics, Semiotics, Stylistics, Neurolinguistics, Tribal Studies, and Cultural studies.

About the Venue of the Conference:

Banaras Hindu University is the largest residential university in Asia, situated in one of the oldest living cities of the planet. The campus in an extensive area of 1360 acres of land offers quality education in all areas of learning. It is half a mile away from the holy river Ganga. Varanasi, Religious Capital of India, also known as City of Temples is a premier place of oriental learning with four universities. It is well known for its silk fabrics, paan, perfumes, artistic brass and copper wares and handicrafts. The holy Buddhist place, Sarnath, is its pride. Therefore, the colorful city has a magnetic attraction and a must visit place for the tourists from all over the world.

Department Of Linguistics, BHU

The Department of Linguistics was established here in the year 1972 alongside the department of Sanskrit, Hindi and English. At present, the department offers UG, PG and Ph.D. courses in all the major areas of Linguistics, with specialization, both in Theoretical and in Applied Linguistics. The department has grown every year since its inception and with this National Seminar and 1st Alumni meet we are going to winding up the celebration of its 50th anniversary of establishment under the headship of Dr. Abhinav Kr. Mishra.

About Varanasi:

Varanasi once known as Banaras or Kashi, is an historic city in northern India. It is also famous for the old ghats, temples mostly dedicated to Lord Shiva. The city is sacred to Hindus, Jains and Buddhists and is also one of the oldest continuously inhabited cities in the world,. It is believed that Lord Shiva along with Parvathi as Vishwanatha and Vishalaakshi reside here to bless devotees. The Ganga (Ganges) river in Varanasi is famous for its direction of flow. It flows here as it flows in heaven. It is considered by Hindus to be sacred and pure, having the ability to wash away sins when people take a holy dip in it. People come to Varanasi for attaining Moksha or ‘Salvation’.

ACCOMMODATION:

Food and accommodation, to the extent possible, will be provided in hostels and University guest- houses. Those who need separate hotel accommodation should intimate the Organizing Secretary on or before 15th August 2023. Please note that, in such cases, charges with regard to food and accommodation have to be borne by the participants. Bonafide students and research scholars have to produce a certificate from the respective Head of their Departments stating their student status to avail the concessional registration. The registration fee includes food and accommodation. Participants are requested to fill up the registration form. Google form is available here ...Link of Google form for Alumni Meet
